

Nobody Knows (Roger and Ann McNamee)

Intro: riff: E E-D-E-B B E-B-E 2x

Verse 1: E C# F#m
Some will climb a mountain

A few will find an answer

Then there are the angry ones

A few will turn to violence

E C# F#m E
In search of what is real

And swear that it's ideal

-- Who cannot hear

And blanket us with fear

Chorus: A B
Is Someone looking out for me
A B
Everybody has an opinion

E
Or are there UFOs
riff twice
But . . . Nobody knows

Verse 2: E C# F#m
Some who own glass houses

They preach a lot to others

E C# F#m E
Throw stones while they shout

Often wrong, (but) never in doubt

Chorus: A B
Is Someone looking out for me
A B
Everybody has an opinion

E
Or are there UFOs
E
But . . . Nobody knows

Bridge: E D
What you believe and I believe
E C#
Some accentuate our differences
E D
What you believe and I believe
E C#
When we wake up in the morning

E B
May not be the same
F#m
In order to inflame
E B
Are pebbles in the game
F#m B --
We're all the sa—aa—aa -- ame

Chorus: D E
Is Someone looking out for me
D E
Everybody has an opinion
D E
Is Someone looking out for me
D E
Everybody has an opinion

A
Or are there UFOs
A
But . . . Nobody knows
A
Or are there UFOs
riff
But . . . Nobody knows

Solo outro over riff